Dean's Welcome Reception

This festive celebration will be held Friday beginning at 7:00 pm at the Courtyard Marriott Historic Charleston District on the corner of Calhoun and Meeting Streets (www.charlestonhotel.com). Alumni from all classes are urged to be present to help recognize the reunion classes of 1972, 1977, 1982, 1987, 1992, 1997, 2002, and 2007 and to enjoy an outstanding evening with friends from other classes and current and retired faculty members of the college. Heavy hors d'oeuvres and open bar, dressy casual attire. REGISTRATION FEE REQUIRED (SEE REGISTRATION FORM.)

Reunion classes will have individual class gatherings at the hotel on Saturday afternoon prior to the oyster roast. Special mailings on individual class plans are being sent to reunion class members by the reunion class chairs. Please contact the alumni office at (843) 792-7979 or 1-888-202-9306 for additional information.

BOB CREAMER, C.P.A.

Bob Creamer is a CPA and President of Creamer & Associates, P.C., an accounting firm in Salem, Oregon. For the past 34 years, his firm has emphasized financial and retirement planning, dental transitions, practice enhancement, wealth creation, tax savings and all related accounting and consulting services needed to maintain an efficient and profitable dental practice.

Known for his knowledgeable and energetic presentations, he is a frequent speaker for national, state and local study groups, dental societies, seminars for dentists, and workshops for companies within the dental industry.

Bob is a founding member of the Academy of Dental CPAs (ADCPA). This elite group represents top CPA firms across the country specializing in the dental industry. He serves on the ADCPA Executive Committee and has been Chairperson of the ADCPA Dental School Liaison Committee.

Bob's accounting firm performs annual surveys for their dental clients, helping them measure their production and overhead with that of their peers. They currently assist dentists and clients in the dental community from coast to coast.

Staff and spouses welcome.

Ample parking is available in the garage located behind the College of Nursing of Jonathan Lucas Street. For a map of the campus go to www.musc.edu and click on the "Maps and Parking" link on the left side of the page.

Historical Charleston Tours

Saturday, February 25, 2012

CHARLESTON'S EARLY SUBURBAN MANSIONS

Stroll through Mazyck - Wraggborough, an early suburb of Charleston. You will be enchanted by its stately churches and lovely homes and gardens. Catch your breath as you stand on the highest point of ground in the city of Charleston and see the replica of the Hunley, the first submarine to be used successfully in naval warfare. Highlights of this tour will be visits to the Aiken Rhett House built in 1719 and the Joseph Manigault House c. 1803. At the Aiken Rhett House, a marvelous preservation of an urban plantation, the docents interpret not only the architecture but the lives of both the owners who were prominent South Carolinians, and their African American servants.

The Joseph Manigault House has an elegant collection of period furniture and a charming garden which is kept up by the Garden Club of Charleston.

9:30 AM – 12:15 PM

Price: $32.00 Per Person

A TASTE OF THE LOWCOUNTRY WALKING TOUR

Stroll with your guide down lovely streets and lanes and view the marvelous architecture of homes built more than a century ago. Peek to the lush private gardens of this quaint old city and breathe the aroma of tea olive and magnolia. After your walking tour, learn what makes Lowcountry cuisine the cornerstone of our coastal South Carolina heritage at Charleston Cooks! This fun cooking demonstration is a great way to learn more about the secrets of Lowcountry cooking, while enjoying a generous tasting of regionally based recipes and sipping a glass of wine. Come enjoy the tastes, the history and the entertainment!

9:00 AM – 12:00 PM

Price: $64.00 Per Person

Low Country Boil / Oyster Roast

Everyone is welcome for an informal evening of fun on Saturday from 7:00 to 10:00 at this year's Low Country Boil and Oyster Roast. The Charleston Visitor Center, 375 Meeting Street, is the location for this annual event. Don't like oysters? Don't worry. There will be a menu for non-oyster eaters too! And new this year... live music!

Ample parking is available at the center and shuttles from the hotel will be available for your convenience. Advance registration is required. NO TICKETS WILL BE SOLD AT THE DOOR. (SEE REGISTRATION FORM.)

A CARRIAGE RIDE INTO THE PAST

Enjoy the sights of Charleston the way our ancestors did, aboard a horse-drawn carriage. A leisurely ride through narrow streets and alley ways carries you past carefully restored 18th and 19th century homes and buildings. Your knowledgeable guide relates three hundred years of history to the accompaniment of horse's hooves clopping along the pavement. The scent of tea olive from nearby gardens lingers in the air as you snap that special photograph capturing a bit of Charleston's history. After your carriage tour spend some time shopping and browsing in the Old City Market and have lunch on your own at one of our fine restaurants.

2:00 PM – 3:00 PM

Price: $23.00 Per Person

All tours will leave from the hotel at the times noted.

ASDA Golf Tournament

Sunday's golf tournament will be held at the Wild Dunes Harbor Course. The tournament will have a shotgun start at 9:30 am. Space is limited so be sure to have your registration in no later than February 13!

Proceeds benefit the MUSC ASDA Chapter.
